Sheriff's deputy placed on leave

A Kingman County Sheriff's deputy has been placed on leave after being named in a protection order filed in Kingman County District Court.

Sheriff Randy Hill said the protection order was filed on April 25, 2017 and named Michael French as the defendant.

French, a full time deputy sheriff with the Kingman County Sheriff's Office, was served the summons and notice of hearing for protection order on that date. A hearing on this matter has been scheduled in Kingman County District Court on May 16, 2017.

French has been placed on administrative leave pending an internal investigation.
