

APPLICATION FOR A ZONING COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATE

This is an application for a compliance certificate in order to determine the agricultural exemption status for a building or structure or use of land including a farm dwelling, modular home, residential-design manufactured home or all types of manufactured or mobile homes as an accessory use for individuals or families owning and/or operating the premises.

The definition of "Agriculture" in Article V, Section 1, Number 8 of the Zoning Regulations is stated as follows:

AGRICULTURE: The use of a tract of land 5 acres or larger, where the principal activity is to produce income from the growing of crops, horticulture, nurseries, truck farms, or the raising of fish, poultry, and cattle or other wildlife habitats, forest preserves, arboretums and similar agriculture related uses. Structures necessary for carrying out the operation are permitted as well as accessory buildings and the dwelling(s) of those owning and/or operating the premises, including single-wide manufactured homes on permanent foundations. The retail sale of items produced as part of the farming operation is permitted excluding commercial greenhouses or similar uses which are primarily retail commercial in nature.

So long as such land, related structures and accessory dwelling(s) are used for such bona fide agricultural purposed, these regulations do not require a zoning permit or occupancy certificate, nor do they establish any other rule or regulation contrary to the provisions fo K.S.A. 12-758. To assist the Zoning Administrator in determining if a proposed building, structure or use meets the definition of agriculture, any applicant seeking agricultural exempt status may be asked to complete a certificate of compliance. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Zoning Administrator in interpreting the definition of agriculture may appeal to the Board of Zoning Appeals for a determination. Surrounding nonagricultural landowners should be aware that Kansas is a "right-to-farm" state under K.S.A 2-3201, et seq. which limits nuisance suits and injunctions if an agricultural activity is being conduction in conformity with federal, state and local laws.

~Feed lots are subject to the licensure and operational requirements of the State including the minimum sanitation and odor practices in order to maintain a healthful environment.

While there is no one criteria which determines whether the use of the land is defined as agriculture, the important concept is that it be used in good faith for a "bona fide" farm activity with the expectation of producing commercial income. This would eliminate the so-called "hobby farm" from consideration where the primary goal is not the production of income, but enjoyment for the residents. Depending upon the type of agricultural activity proposed, it could be a large farming operation or several acres devoted to intensive and specialized farm use.

The following questions may assist the applicant in providing a description below on which the exemption status will be determined by the Zoning Administrator.

Please answer YES or No:

1. Has the land been farmed before or is it being farmed now? _____
2. Does the land possess some unique features or resources which make the farm proposal feasible? _____
3. Has the applicant prepared himself or herself with specialized knowledge or skills to conduct a particular farm activity? _____
4. Has the applicant assembled certain equipment or particular financing to undertake the proposed activity? _____
5. Will several members of the household participate in the activity? _____
6. Was the land bought at a price which anticipated farming activities as distinguished from a possible speculative venture? _____
7. Is the land in a cooperative program with the County Conservation District? _____
8. What proportion of the land would be used for the proposed activity? _____
9. Would there be any retail sales of farm products on the land? _____
10. What farm products will be produced for commercial sale? _____
11. Is it anticipated that the income produced would result in regular reporting of farm income to the Internal Revenue Service on Schedule F? _____
